Dear Mr. Toothacre:

This is in response to your Administrative Claim for Damages under 26 USC sects. 7432, 7433, Civil Damages for Failure to Release Lien, dated May 16, 2006.

Your claim has been reviewed and is denied for the following reasons:

IRC 7432 states 1) actual, direct economic damages sustained by the plaintiff, 2) the costs of the action. Claims must contain specific and detailed descriptions of the amounts of the damages. Your claim did not contain this information.

IRC 6325(2) states that if the collection statute after assessment has not expired, the Secretary may revoke a lien release and reinstate the lien. The collection statute had been extended by the filing of the bankruptcy and the offer in compromise. A discharge in bankruptcy does not automatically abate any tax liability due, especially if there is a Notice of Federal Tax Lien recorded. The remaining Notices will not be released until the accounts have been paid in full or become unenforceable due to statute expiration.

You are not entitled to request any additional administrative appeals of this decision. However, if you wish to take further action, you may file a civil action for damages under Treasury Regulation 301.7432-1 in Federal District Court. You have two years from the date of the action you believe caused your damages to file your case with the court.

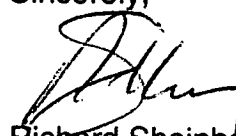

If you have any questions or need more information, please contact Ms. Buhrow (ID#33-04602) at the address or the telephone number listed below:
